

PRIVACY NOTICE

Millennium Exploration Company, LLC (Millennium) strongly believes in protecting the confidentiality and security of information we collect about our customers. Accordingly, information regarding Millennium’s policy is stated below. This notice informs you of our privacy policy and describes how we treat information that we receive about you.

Privacy Policy for Clients

Definitions:

“You” means our client or former client – an individual who obtains, or who has obtained a product or service from Millennium Exploration that is to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and with whom we have a continuing relationship.

“We”, “Us”, or “Our” means Millennium Exploration.

“Third party” means any company or organization that is not an affiliate of Millennium Exploration.

Why We Collect Information and the Types of Information Collected From You:

Millennium Exploration collects information from you to help us determine your suitability, and to fulfill legal and regulatory requirements. The type of information that Millennium collects may include:

- Information included on a suitability questionnaire and subscription and customer agreement or other forms (such as name, address, telephone number, social security number, assets, income, investment objectives and experience.)

- Information about your transactions and/or relationship with us (such as account and payment history); and

- Information we receive from demographic and marketing companies (such as name, address, telephone number, marketing profiles, and other such information).

How We Protect Information About You:

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you. We take appropriate disciplinary measures to enforce the responsibilities of our officers, directors, and staff regarding customer information. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Sharing Information with Third Parties for Their Marketing

We do not sell any of the personal information that we collect about our customers to other businesses as a means of allowing such businesses to offer their products or services to you. We do not share any of the personal information that we collect about our customers to third parties for their use in telemarketing, direct mail marketing, or other marketing through electronic mail. Therefore, you need not take any action to prevent disclosure by us of the information you provide.

Sharing Information With Third Parties for Other Purposes

As authorized by you or as required by law, we may disclose information about you (as described above) to third parties. In addition, we may disclose information in response by subpoena, to prevent fraud, or to comply with an inquiry by a government agency or regulator.

BUSINESS CONTINUITY PLAN

Millennium Exploration has developed a Business Continuity Plan on how we will respond to events that significantly disrupt our business. Since timing and impact of disasters and disruptions is unpredictable, we will have to be flexible in responding to actual events as they occur.

Contacting Us- If after a significant business disruption, you cannot contact us as you usually do at 210-579-0734, you should call out alternative number at 210-723-3789 and speak with Richard Monroy.

Our Business Continuity Plan- We plan to quickly recover and resume business operations after a significant business disruption and respond by safeguarding our employees and property, making a financial operational assessment, protecting the firm's books and records, and allowing our customers to transact business. In short, our business continuity plan is designed to permit our firm to resume operations as quickly as possible, given the scope and severity of the business disruption.

Our business continuity plan addresses: data back up and recovery; all mission critical systems; financial and operational assessments; alternative communications with customers and employees; alternate physical location of employees; critical supplier; contractor, bank, and counter-party impact; and assuring our customers prompt access to their revenues if we are unable to continue our business.

Varying Disruptions- Significant business disruptions can vary in their scope, such as a single building housing our firm, the business district where our firm is located, the city where we are located, or the whole region. Within each of these areas, the severity of the disruption can also vary from minimal to severe. In a disruption to only our firm or a building housing our firm, we will transfer our operations to a local site when needed and expect to recover and resume business within 48-72 hours. In a disruption affecting our business district, city, or region, we will transfer our operations to a site outside of the affected area, and recover and resume business within 5 business days. In either situation, we plan to continue in business and notify you by whatever means are available at the time.

Millennium Exploration's business continuity plan is subject to modification. You can obtain updated information about the plan by requesting a written copy by mail. All requests for updated information should be sent to the following address: Millennium Exploration Company, attn: Richard Monroy, 400 N. Loop 1604 E. Suite 202, San Antonio, TX 78232.

For more information- If you have questions about our business continuity plan, you can contact us at 210-579-0734.
